A PIECE OF NONSENSE.

The time has come for the department commanders to repeat their circular, discouraging attendance at the Milwaukee encampment. It is not to be expected that General Martin, who has personal reasons for preventing a large attendance, will modify his circular. He wants a state encampment instead, in which he could be the prominent figure that he could not be at the national reunion. But the other department commanders can afford to be reasonable.

We are firmly convinced that if this attempt at a boycott is persisted in by the department commanders and if it should be in any measure successful, there will never be another successful encampment. The commanders of Wisconsin have invited the encampment of Wisconsin and the citizens of this city and state have gone to unprecedented expense and trouble to give the Grand Army the grandest reception it has ever known. They have expended more than $100,000 and secured a rate of 20 per cent. below the usual excursion rates. Under a pretense that "a principle" is involved, General Martin has influenced some department commanders to discourage attendance. The real principle involved is that of common justice to the veterans and citizens of Wisconsin. Any measure of success by Martin and his followers would be disgraceful. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

The persistent opposition of the department commanders to a general attendance at the national encampment, is not only a piece of nonsense, but it is unjust to Wisconsin, especially to the city of Milwaukee, and great disrespect to the grand encampment. We guess the Sentinel is about right in suggesting that General Martin is moved in this matter by a spirit of vanity, selfishness, and egotism. He wants a state encampment, otherwise he will be cast in the great mass of soldiers, and would not be noticed. He wants to ride at the head of the procession after the desire of Haman, and to satisfy his personal ambition he is perfectly willing to sacrifice the success of the national encampment.

It is hoped that the old soldiers throughout the country, the well educated, will not heed the ill-advised circular of the department commanders. It is unfortunate that a one-cent rate could not be obtained on the railways. This is more unfortunate to the soldiers than to the department commanders, but if the veterans are willing to attend the encampment at the rates agreed upon by the railway lines, why discourage them? It is their business and not the department commanders. It clearly becomes a personal grievance when the commanders take so many methods to cheat Milwaukee out of a large attendance. It is hoped that the veterans will pay no attention to the action of the department commanders but will do all in their power to make the encampment a success.

TRUSTS AND PROTECTION.

A salt combination was in successful operation in England five years ago. The United States was its chief foreign market. The development of the salt industry there caused such a decline in the exportation of salt from England that the union there was shattered. It was reorganized at a later date and is now paying large dividends—15 per cent in six months. It was the success of the English salt trust that led to the abortive effort to establish one here. And why did the effort fail? For the reason that under a protective tariff the industry has been developed to such an extent that a combination to increase the price of salt to any extent is impossible. The tendency of the Hudson is much the same, and no description can exaggerate them; but the magnificent steamers that ply between New York and Albany, the innumerable sailing crafts that dot the surface of the mighty river, the never ending clusters of canal boats that are being towed up and down the beautiful valleys that encounter at every turn, the magnificent monuments perpetuating heroic deeds that we find here and there along the banks of this noblest river of the continent, add an endless variety to the scenery, and a resistless charm to the eye of the traveler.

The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad runs along the bank of the Hudson river the entire distance between New York and Albany, and is the great trunk line that connects the metropolis of the western world with the famous health and pleasure resorts of Central, Northern and Western New York, including in its lists the Catskill Mountains, Saratoga, Lake George, Shaker and Richfield Springs, Lake Ontario, The Berkshire Hills, Niagara Falls, The Thousand Islands, Lake Champlain, the River St. Lawrence, and hundreds of others.

The New York Central is a part of the great national highway across the continent, and for the beauty of its scenery, the number and importance of the cities through which it passes, its almost total lack of grades and curves, the great four track railway is unsurpassed in Europe or America.

TODD'S.

"BURTON AND INDIA PALE ALES" are acknowledged by judges to be superior to the Imported English Ales. They have the virtue of being strictly pure—nothing save malt and hops, and of the choicest quality, enters into their composition. Consequently all the nutritive tonic and restorative properties those ingredients are known to possess are found judiciously blended in these brands of ale.—Brewery east end Milwaukee street bridge.

Having concluded to retire from the dry goods business, I will henceforth sell my present stock at net cost, thus offering great inducements to buyers, to procure good goods at low prices. This sale will continue until the entire stock is sold. Store fixtures for sale. Persons having bills against me (if any) will please present them for payment at my place, No. 9, South Main street, Myers & Sons Block.

TWO ON ONE GALLOWS.

A DOUBLE EXECUTION AT LOUISVILLE, KY.

A Pair of Double Murderers Hanged from the Same Scaffold.—The Day's Record of Misdeeds.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 1.—At 6:05 o'clock Wednesday morning Charles Dilger, who in August last murdered two police officers, and Harry Smart, who killed Meisner Green and wife, were hanged.

At 9:05 both drops fell. Smart did not seem to die hard. Dilger had to be pulled up to give him a second drop, the loop not working well and he dropping to the ground struggling hard. He was placed on the scaffold and the black cap readjusted. The knot had slipped out of the noose. Dilger talked to the turnkey after being taken up and said to him: "What did I tell you?"

Dilger dropped again with a lunge, and this fall was effective. He struggled to death. Smart's neck was broken. Dilger died hard, struggling violently. In two minutes after the second drop Dilger was quiet and in five minutes was dead. At 6:10 it was all over. The crowd kept quiet through the terrible scene. Neither criminal said anything on the scaffold.

The execution is the first double hanging in this city for nearly a decade. The last one occurred in 1881, when Anderson and Webster, the wife-murderers, were hanged together. It is probably the first instance on record where two men, each guilty of a double murder, were hanged side by side.

Charles Dilger lived with a disreputable woman, and on the morning of the murder went to his home drunk and at once began beating her. Her screams attracted the attention of Officers James Jones and Joseph Rosenberg, who went to the woman's assistance.

Upon the entrance of the officers Dilger left the woman and turned his attention to the policemen. He whipped out a large knife and made a dash at Rosenberg, driving the knife blade into his head. The wounded officer was unconscious for twelve hours, at the expiration of which time he died. After stabbing Rosenberg Dilger rushed at Officer Jones, and the two men grappled with each other. In a few minutes Dilger managed to free his hand in which he held the knife, and drove the blade to Jones' heart, killing him instantly. After the killing of Jones Dilger made his escape, but was arrested two hours later.

Harry Smart's crime was a double murder. During December, 1888, the dead bodies of Meisner Green and Belle Ward were found in the river near Louisville, Ky. Both had been murdered about the same time and place. The bodies had been sunk in the Ohio river with large stones tied to the ankles of each. The stones, however, failed to keep the bodies at the bottom of the river. They arose to the surface and were found soon after.

Everything went to show that Harry Smart was the perpetrator of the bloody deeds. He was arrested and put on trial. In the murder of Meisner Green he was found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment for life. In the Belle Ward case the jury convicted him of murdering the woman and fixed his punishment at death on the gallows.

BURKE WILL VISIT CHICAGO.

The Warrant for Extradition Signed by the Canadian Minister.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 1.—Sir John Thompson, minister of justice, has issued his warrant for the extradition of Burke, and it has been forwarded to Winnipeg and will reach there Saturday noon.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 1.—Chief of Police Hubert and Lieut. Ross of the Chicago police have arrived here and are making arrangements for taking Burke back. They have secured a special car for the accommodation of the prisoner and the Chicago party now here. Hubert says he does not apprehend any attempt at rescue, but will take every precaution. The party will be fully armed, so as to be ready to resist any attack on the train. Burke is now reconciled to his fate, as he expects to be well defended in Chicago. The party will leave Saturday.

COWARDLY STRIKERS.

They Attempt to Fire a House in Which Non-Union Men Are Stopping.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 1.—There is great excitement at Duquesne. The strikers who were recently defeated by the Duquesne Steel Works company attempted to fire a large boarding house in which a number of non-union men were sleeping.

They had emptied a barrel of oil into the cellar and were in the act of applying a match to the oil when the fire was discovered and fired upon by the watchman. The strikers escaped in the confusion. They had already notified the owner of the house that if he continued to accommodate non-union men they would kill him.

A San Francisco Letter Gone Wrong.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 1.—William L. Ross, note taker in the Nevada bank, has been arrested at Victoria, C. B., at the request of the San Francisco authorities. Ross obtained leave of absence a few days ago, and after he left a shortage of $1,500 was found in his accounts, and promissory notes for over $25,000 were also missing. The money and notes were found in his possession when arrested.

TEXAS CATTLE PLAGUE.

The Illinois Live Stock Commission Takes Prompt Action to Prevent It.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The Illinois Live Stock commissioners have been holding an important session in Chicago to decide on measures to prevent an outbreak of Texas fever among the cattle at the stock yards. The regulations imposed by the board prohibiting the shipment and landing of Texas cattle with natives after the removal of the embargo on the entry of Texans into Illinois were conscientiously observed for some time here. Finally, however, there were breaches of the order by men interested in purchasing the Southern cattle. Recently it developed that the practice had become so prevalent that cattle covered with ticks and having other evidence of disease were indiscriminately forwarded and yarded with native cattle. The board took measures to correct the evil and put a stop to the practice of shipping Texas cattle to this market except under stringent regulations. Railway companies will be required to cleanse all cars in which such cattle have been forwarded, and it is probable that a State agent will be appointed at Kansas City to inspect all cattle that is shipped from the Southwest.

Dr. B. MINGER, the eminent optician of Detroit, Mich., will visit every town in this county during the summer. Any one suffering with weak eyes, or eyes abused by inferior glasses, should not fail to see him. Orders left at the post office will be promptly attended to. No extra charge for examining or visiting patients at their homes.

SUFFERING AT SPRING VALLEY.

Dr. Wines Reports the Miners in Great Need.—The Responsibility.

SPRING VALLEY, Ill., Aug. 1.—Dr. Wines of the State board of charities has arrived here from Peoria, where he has been investigating the condition of the miners around that district. His visit here is on a similar errand, and in conversation with your representative he said that he had met the miners' relief committee here and was very favorably impressed. He said that he saw the names of 540 heads of families who were applicants for charity here alone, and in addition to that he made a personal canvass from house to house, and said that he considered it a case of genuine suffering from privation in many instances, and one which would merit relief from such persons as were charitably disposed without any question.

The women and children were not, he thought, to blame for the lack-out and the responsibility for it would be hard to fix.

He saw Charles A. Devlin, the general manager of the Spring Valley Coal company here and Mr. Devlin said the questions scheduled at Peoria by the State board would be answered, so far as they related to his company, at Joliet Aug. 7.

Great Distress at Brazil.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 1.—Judge J. C. Suit, chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Indiana, who has just completed an official investigation into the condition of the striking miners, will issue an appeal to the order for aid. He visited Carbonia, Carlton, and other outside mining points and met representatives from all the lodges in the mining districts. He reports a distressing state of affairs. No appeal for help has been made to the Knights of Pythias lodge in Brazil.

Monongahela Miners Go Out.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 1.—The Monongahela river miners have decided to strike against the reduction in the rate of mining in the first three pools from 3 cents to 2 cents per bushel. This action was taken to equalize the rate in the fourth pool. The men employed by Walton & Co. have struck and a general suspension of work in the river mines is anticipated. The strike will affect 5,000 miners.

A Great Strike Imminent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—A news agency here has dispatches indicating that a great strike is imminent in the Pennsylvania coke region.

MAY HAVE WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Power Given to the North Dakota Legislature to Adopt Such a Provision.

BISMARCK, D. T., Aug. 1.—The convention is now adjourning after its debating days and every member is squaring himself with his constituents advocating his hobby or talking against time. The principal action of the convention was the adoption of a motion giving the Legislature power to extend the suffrage to women. This is in accordance with the request of the woman suffragists.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 1.—The convention has adopted the article on revenue and taxation. It exempts from taxation all United States, church, and public property and libraries; provides for the taxation of mines according to the amount paid to the United States for the same, but subjects the machinery to special taxes; declares that private property shall not be sold for the taxes of public corporations and fixes the limit of taxation from 1 to 3 mills, according to the assessed valuation.

OTUMWA, W. T., Aug. 1.—The convention has adopted the preamble to the constitution with the amendment introducing the name of Delity. The convention also adopted the sections limiting the State indebtedness to $100,000 and that of counties, cities, towns, and school districts to 14 per cent of the assessed value of property. The latter limit can be increased to 5 per cent by a three-fifths vote of the people and a further increase of 5 per cent is allowed for sewers, lighting, or water works.

A hard fight is now being waged in the convention against the section forbidding the granting of subsidies. Strong bodies of prominent citizens are here from all over the territory urging the striking out of the clause, and it is freely predicted that if not struck out several counties will vote against the adoption of the constitution.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

John Metcalf, an Edgerton Butcher, was Last Evening

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

Of the Murder of Isabella Evenson, and Brought to This City by Sheriff Babcock.

Sheriff George C. Babcock went to Edgerton last evening and arrested John Metcalf, of that city, who was charged with the murder of Mrs. Isabella Evenson, which occurred Monday night.

The alleged murderer was brought to this city by the sheriff who arrived at ten o'clock, and was placed in the county jail. A reporter of the Gazette visited the jail this morning, but nothing of importance concerning the case could be gleaned from the prisoner. The reporter was informed that the wife of this John Metcalf was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orange Hyde, who reside over the Bower City Laundry near the east side engine house, and visited this place where she was found.

On being introduced, Mrs. Metcalf talked quite freely and calmly to the reporter, of the occurrence. She said that she had resided in Edgerton about six years; that she was married three years ago to the 19th of last May to John Metcalf, since which time they had resided in Edgerton; that Mr. Metcalf had worked in tobacco two or three years. He was 30 years of age the 3d of last July, and the past year had worked in Robert Attey's meat market.

They lived next door to Mrs. Evenson but her husband was not suspected on account of this. He had about $25 in his possession on the Sunday before the murder and Mrs. Metcalf was inclined to think that this was the reason of the suspicion. Mr. Metcalf heard the morning before the arrest that he was suspected and would probably be arrested. Said he was not alarmed, that they could prove nothing. When the officers came with the warrant he was perfectly calm, asked her for a clean shirt and went willingly with the officers. He had opportunity all day to escape but preferred not to. Metcalf was at home as usual Sunday and Monday and was never in Mrs. Evenson's house until after the murder.

Mrs. Metcalf said that her husband came home about ten o'clock Monday night, that he was accompanied by three men, all of whom were with him, stopped. The other two men, Joseph Pollard, a saloon keeper, and Thomas Weelick, a blacksmith, accompanied him home. Her husband had been drinking some that night, but was perfectly rational and knew what he was doing.

She did not see how they could prove anything against her husband. He was arrested and placed in jail for fast driving over the Newville bridge. He went to jail because he preferred to, that was nothing against him. Mrs. Metcalf is a niece of Robert Johnson, a storekeeper at Indian Ford, and also overseer of the dam for the Water Power Company.

The examination of Mr. Metcalf will probably be held before Judge Patterson at the municipal court to-morrow.
